

Part 3: Worth Fighting For - Levi Lusko

Introduction

Marriage is worth fighting for, and God's word gives us the tools to navigate through adversity when it comes.

Changing Your Mind

He who finds a wife finds what is good and receives favor from the Lord. - Proverbs 18:22

Catch for us the foxes, the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, our vineyards that are in bloom. - Song of Solomon 2:15

I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as wise as snakes and as innocent as doves. - Matthew 10:16

Discussion Questions

1. What are some crazy stories or bad advice you've heard about marriage? Do you generally hear great things or horrible things?
2. Have you ever experienced having "your nose rubbed in the carpet" for your past mistakes? Is this your first time hearing that God isn't the one doing that to you?
3. The devil has gotten us to hate on something (marriage) that he broke. How can we combat that mindset which we see in society?
4. Everything that God begins the devil opposes. What are some examples of seeing this in your own life?
5. By the time you even realize you have a hot head, it's too late to cool off. What are some signs that your blood is getting hot and you need to cool your head? What do you do to cool down/replenish yourself?
6. Conflict is inevitable; how do you handle moments of conflict in your life? Do you avoid confrontation or face it head on?
7. We must fight FOR our marriages and not just fight IN them. Whether married or single, what are practical ways to fight for your marriage?
8. How can we keep our relationship with God first?
9. What are places in which you've allowed faith to become a substitute for action? What steps do you need to take to put action to your faith?

Moving Forward

How do you identify with Moses and Joshua? Living our lives filled with worship and prayer can only help us if we draw our sword and create a practical plan. Lets begin to trust God but also map out how we can actively obey Him.
